Variable APRs will increase or decrease when the Prime Rate changes. The APR change will take effect	on the first day of the billing period that begins during the same calendar month that the Prime Rate changes. An increase in the APR will increase your interest charges and may increase your Minimum Payment Due. Your APR will never be less than zero.
Penalty APR	None

MAKING PAYMENTS

Payment Instructions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · You must pay in U.S. dollars. Please do not send cash. Sending cash is not allowed. All checks must be drawn on funds on deposit in the U.S. · You must pay us for all amounts due on your Account. This includes charges made by Authorized Users. · We may refuse to accept a payment in a foreign currency. If we do accept it, we will charge your Account our cost to convert it to U.S. dollars. · We can accept late payments, partial payments or payments marked “payment in full” or with any other restrictive endorsement without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · We credit your payments in accordance with the terms contained on your billing statement. · If you mail your payment to an address other than the address designated on your billing statement, there may be a delay in processing and crediting the payment to your Account. · If a third party makes a payment on your Account and we return all or a part of such payment, then we may adjust your Account for any amount returned. We reserve the right to defend ourselves against any demand to return funds we have received, and may agree to a compromise of the demanded amount as part of a settlement.
Minimum Payment Due	You may pay the entire New Balance shown on your billing statement at any time. Each billing period you must pay at least the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date shown on your billing statement. The Minimum Payment Due will be any amount past due plus the greater of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · $35; or · 2% of the New Balance shown on your billing statement; or · $20, plus any of the following charges as shown on your billing statement: 	fees for any debt protection product that you enrolled in on or after 2/1/2015; Interest Charges; and Late Fees. The Minimum Payment Due may also include amounts by which you exceed your Account credit line. However, it will never exceed the New Balance. When we calculate the Minimum Payment Due, we may subtract from the New Balance certain fees added to your Account during the billing period. The Minimum Payment Due is rounded up to the nearest dollar.

How We Apply Payments	We apply payments and credits at our discretion, including in a manner most favorable or convenient for us. In all cases, we will apply payments and credits as required by applicable law.	Each billing period, we will generally apply amounts you pay that exceed the Minimum Payment Due to balances with higher APRs before balances with lower APRs as of the date we credit your payment.

INTEREST CHARGES

How We Calculate Interest Charges—Daily Balance Method (including current transactions)	We calculate interest charges each billing period by first figuring the “daily balance” for each Transaction Category. Transaction Categories include standard Purchases, standard Cash Advances and different promotional balances, such as Balance Transfers. How We Figure the Daily Balance for Each Transaction Category <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We start with the beginning balance for each day. The beginning balance for the first day of the billing period is your balance on the last day of your previous billing period. • We add any interest charges accrued on the previous day’s daily balance and any new transactions and fees. We add any new transactions or fees as of the later of the Transaction Date or the first day of the billing period in which the transaction or fee posted to your Account. • We subtract any new credits and payments. • We make other adjustments (including those adjustments required in the “Paying Interest” section). 	How We Figure Your Total Interest Charges <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We multiply the daily balance for each Transaction Category by its daily periodic rate. We do this for each day in the billing period. This gives us the interest charges for each Transaction Category. To get a daily periodic rate, we divide the APR that applies to the Transaction Category by 365. • We add up all the daily interest charges. The sum is the total interest charge for the billing period. • Due to rounding or a minimum interest charge, the interest calculation may vary from the interest charge actually assessed. How We Include Fees We add Balance Transfer Fees to the applicable Balance Transfer Transaction Category. We add Cash Advance Fees to the applicable Cash Advance Transaction Category. We add all other fees to the standard Purchase Transaction Category.
--	---	--

Paying Interest	When Interest Charges Begin We begin to impose interest charges on a transaction, fee or interest charge from the day we add it to the daily balance. We continue to impose interest charges until you pay the total amount you owe us. You can avoid paying interest on Purchases as described below. However, you cannot avoid paying interest on Balance Transfers or Cash Advances. How to Avoid Paying Interest on Purchases (“Grace Period”) If you pay the New Balance on your current billing statement by the Payment Due Date shown on that billing statement, we will not impose	interest charges on New Purchases. New Purchases are Purchases that first appear on the next billing statement. Interest will continue to accrue each day on Purchases that appeared on previous billing statements until you pay the New Balance in full and will be billed in the next billing cycle. How We Apply Payments May Impact Your Grace Period If you do not pay your New Balance in full each month, then, depending on the balance to which we apply your payment, you may not get a grace period on new Purchases.

ARBITRATION

Agreement to Arbitrate. In the event of a dispute between you and us arising out of or relating to this Account or the relationships resulting from this Account or any other dispute between you or us, including, for example, a dispute based on a federal or state statute or local ordinance ("Claim"), either you or we may choose to resolve the Claim by binding arbitration, as described below, instead of in court. Any Claim (except for a Claim challenging the validity or enforceability of this arbitration agreement, including the Class Action Waiver) may be resolved by binding arbitration if either party requests it. THIS MEANS IF EITHER YOU OR WE CHOOSE ARBITRATION, NEITHER PARTY WILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO LITIGATE SUCH CLAIM IN COURT OR TO HAVE A JURY TRIAL. ALSO DISCOVERY AND APPEAL RIGHTS ARE LIMITED IN ARBITRATION.

Even if all parties have opted to litigate a Claim in court, you or we may elect arbitration with respect to any Claim made by a new party or any new Claims later asserted in that lawsuit.

This arbitration agreement does not apply if, on the date you submit your Application or on the date we seek to invoke this arbitration agreement, you are a member of the Armed Forces or a dependent of such a member covered by the federal Military Lending Act. If you would like more information about whether you are covered by the Military Lending Act, please contact us at 1-844-DFS-4MIL (1-844-337-4645) or if you are calling from outside the US at +1-801-451-3730.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER. ARBITRATION MUST BE ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS. THIS MEANS NEITHER YOU NOR WE MAY JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS IN ARBITRATION BY OR AGAINST OTHER CARDMEMBERS, OR LITIGATE IN COURT OR ARBITRATE ANY CLAIMS AS A REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER OF A CLASS OR IN A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL CAPACITY.

The arbitrator may award injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual Claim. The arbitrator may not award class, representative, or public injunctive relief. If a court decides that applicable law precludes enforcement of any of this paragraph's limitations as to a particular Claim for relief, then after all appeals from that decision have been exhausted, that Claim (and only that Claim) must be severed from the arbitration and may be brought in court. Only a court, and not an arbitrator, shall determine the validity, scope, and effect of the Class Action Waiver.

Your and Our Right To Go To Small Claims Court. You and we will not choose to arbitrate any individual Claim you or we bring in small claims court (or an equivalent court). This means you or we may bring an action in small claims court (or an equivalent court) without being subject to arbitration. However, if a Claim is transferred, removed, or appealed from small claims court to a different court, or if any Claim brought in small claims court exceeds the small claims court limit, you or we may then choose to arbitrate.

Governing Law and Rules. This arbitration agreement is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"). Arbitration must proceed only with the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The rules for the arbitration will be those in this arbitration agreement and the procedures of the AAA, but the rules in this arbitration agreement will be followed if there is disagreement between the agreement and the AAA's procedures. If the AAA's procedures change after the Claim is filed, the procedures in effect when the Claim was filed will apply.

For a copy of the AAA's procedures, to file a Claim or for other information, please contact the AAA at 1101 Laurel Oak Rd., Voorhees, NJ 08043, www.adr.org.

If the AAA is completely unavailable, and if you and we cannot agree on a substitute, then either you or we may request that a court with jurisdiction appoint a substitute.

Fees and Costs. If you wish to begin arbitration against us but you cannot afford to pay your share of the AAA's or arbitrator's costs and cannot obtain a waiver of costs from the AAA, we will advance those costs if you ask us in writing and are acting in good faith. Any request like this should be sent to Discover, P.O. Box 30421, Salt Lake City, UT 84130-0421. If you lose the arbitration, the arbitrator will decide whether you must reimburse us for money we advanced for you for the arbitration. If you win the arbitration, we will not ask for reimbursement of money we advanced. Additionally, if you win the arbitration, the arbitrator may decide that you are entitled to be reimbursed your reasonable attorneys' fees and costs (if actually paid by you). The arbitrator may also allocate compensation, expenses, and administrative fees (which include filing and hearing fees) to any party upon the arbitrator's determination that the party's claim or counterclaim was filed for purposes of harassment or is patently frivolous.

Hearings and Decisions. Arbitration hearings will take place in the federal judicial district where you live. A single arbitrator will be appointed. The arbitrator must:

- Follow all applicable substantive law, except when contradicted by the FAA;
- Follow applicable statutes of limitations;
- Honor valid claims of privilege; and
- Issue a written decision including the reasons for the award.

The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding except for any review allowed by the FAA. However, if more than $100,000 was genuinely in dispute, then either you or we may choose to appeal to a new panel of three arbitrators. The appellate panel is completely free to accept or reject the entire original award or any part of it. The appeal must be filed with the AAA not later than 30 days after the original award issues. Appeal costs will be allocated consistent with the AAA's Consumer Arbitration Rules and Due Process Protocol.

Any arbitration award may be enforced (such as through a judgment) in any court with jurisdiction. Any finding, award, or judgment from an arbitration of any Claim shall apply only to that arbitration. No finding, award, or judgment from any other arbitration shall impact the arbitration of any Claim.

Claim Notice and Special Payment. If you have a Claim, before initiating an arbitration proceeding, you may give us written notice of the Claim ("Claim Notice") at least 30 days before initiating the arbitration proceeding. The Claim Notice must include your name, address, and account number and explain in reasonable detail the nature of the Claim and any supporting facts. Any Claim Notice shall be sent to us at Discover, P.O. Box 794, Deerfield, IL 60015 (or such other address as we shall subsequently provide to you). If, and only if, (1) you submit a Claim Notice in accordance with this agreement on your own behalf (and not on behalf of any other party); and (2) an arbitrator, after finding in your favor in any respect on the merits of your Claim, issues you an award that (excluding any arbitration fees or attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the arbitrator) is greater than the value of Discover's last written settlement offer made before an arbitrator was selected, then you will be entitled to the amount of the award or $7,500, whichever is greater. If you are entitled to the $7,500, you will receive in addition any arbitration fees or attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the arbitrator.

Other Beneficiaries of this Agreement. In addition to you and us, the rights and duties described in this arbitration agreement apply to: our Affiliates, successors, subsidiaries, and our and their officers, directors and employees; any third party co-defendant of a Claim subject to this arbitration agreement; and all joint Accountholders and Authorized Users of your Account(s).

Survival of this Agreement. This arbitration agreement shall survive:

- closing of your Account;
- voluntary payment of your Account or any part of it;
- any legal proceedings to collect money you owe;
- any bankruptcy by you; and
- any sale, assignment, or transfer by us of your Account.

You Have the Right to Reject Arbitration for this Account. You may reject the arbitration agreement but only if we receive from you a written notice of rejection within 30 days of your receipt of the Card after your Account is opened. You must send the notice of rejection to: Discover, P.O. Box 30938, Salt Lake City, UT 84130-0938.

Your rejection notice must include your name, address, phone number, Account number and personal signature. No one else may sign the rejection notice for you. Your rejection notice must not be sent with any other correspondence. Rejection of arbitration will not affect your other rights or responsibilities under this Agreement. If you reject arbitration, neither you nor we will be subject to the arbitration agreement for this Account. Rejection of arbitration for this Account will not constitute rejection of any prior or future arbitration agreement between you and us.

Your Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Discover
P.O. Box 30421
Salt Lake City, UT 84130-0421.

You may also contact us on the Web: <https://discover.com/billingerrornotice>

In your letter or on the Web, please give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- By 5:00 P.M. ET on the date an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong. You must notify us of any potential errors in writing or electronically. You may call us, but if you do you are not necessarily required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter or Web Submission

When we receive your written or electronic notice, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your notice, we must tell you that we received it. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your notice, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may continue to appear on your statement.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us (or visit <https://discover.com/billingerrornotice>) within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing or electronically at:

Discover
P.O. Box 30945
Salt Lake City, UT 84130-0945
<https://discover.com/billingerrornotice>

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.

Availability of FICO® Credit Score

As an active cardmember, you may see your FICO® Credit Score on your monthly statement or online. Reasons why you may not see your FICO® Credit Score include: if you opt out; if you have key information that is mismatched or missing, as one example, an address change that has not been updated with Discover or TransUnion®; if your credit history is too new; if your account status is abandoned, bankrupt, fraud, lost or stolen, closed, revoked, or charged off; if you have a foreign address. Your FICO® Score is disclosed on statements when your statement is available. You may not receive a statement if you have no account activity such as no purchase transactions, fees, interest, or payments for approximately 30 days.
